

AUSTRALIAN OPEN PACIFIC PATHWAY 2017/18

Instructions and Guidelines to Pacific Member Nations.

The Australian Open and Tennis Australia have prepared criteria for the application process for the AO Pacific Pathway 2017/18 – please review the application form below.

Pacific Member Nations should note that applications will be assessed only on the criteria listed in the application form.

Applications are now open and should be submitted to Bruce Osborne via email – bosborne@tennis.com.au by August 3rd.

Member Nations will be notified of the result of their applications by return email by August 15th.

Funding and equipment grants will be made available for the Member Nations' programs based on the following priorities:

1. Does the proposed program adequately meet the application criteria?
2. Is the program designed for the development of introductory Hot Shots schools programs for children aged 7, 8 and 9 years of age, or across two year levels in school for children aged 7, 8 or 9?
3. Does the program provide ongoing competitive opportunities within school and for interschool competitions?
4. Is each class of students to receive a minimum of four sessions?
5. Does the proposed grant continue a program that was set-up under the AO Pacific Pathway 2014/15/16/17?
6. Will there be a regional red ball schools teams challenge?

Hot Shots packs may be provided to Member Nations as part of a grant. Please indicate if you seek this pack on the application form. Play packs will be provided to Member Nations for use in schools once the program within schools has identified a start date. These packs are to sustain play within schools, either on an intra-school basis or for inter-school use.

Member Nations should ensure they read the information in this document carefully, complete all the application form and indicate whether they require a Hot Shots start up pack.

No late applications will be considered. If you require any further information please contact me.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

AO PACIFIC PATHWAY BACKGROUND AND OBJECTIVES

The Australian Open Pacific Pathway Tennis Development Program (AO Pacific Pathway) aims to encourage the development of junior tennis programs for 4-10 years olds in member nations of the Oceania Tennis Federation (Member Nations). The AO Pacific Pathway will provide grants in the form of cash payments and equipment (Grant) to selected Member Nations to be put towards:

- the creation and implementation of junior tennis development programs in schools;
- advocating participation in tennis for junior school aged children; and
- providing those children with opportunities to continue to play tennis.

GRANT DETAILS

The total cash Grant available under the 2017-2018 AO Pacific Pathway is $25,000 AUD; to be distributed to successful Member Nations.

Additionally, modified Hot Shots tennis equipment to the value of $25,000 AUD (less freight costs) will be distributed in the Grant.

The Grants may be awarded to up to 10 Member Nations. The recipients of the Grants will be decided once all applications have been received.

The recipients' junior development program must focus on delivery of Hot Shots tennis in schools for 4-10 years olds but preference will be for programs that emphasise 7, 8 and 9 year old age groups.

APPLYING FOR A GRANT

Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible for a Grant, a Member Nation must:

- be a financial member of the Oceania Tennis Federation;
- be a current and ongoing participant in the ITF's Junior Tennis Initiative (JTI) or be able to demonstrate its intention to become one;
- hold the necessary local approvals to deliver Hot Shots programs at the Member Nation's schools; and
- complete the attached Grant Application Form.

Application Criteria

In the Grant Application Form, the Applicant should demonstrate how it will comply with the aims and objectives of the AO Pacific Pathway. The Applicant must demonstrate how its proposed junior development program will provide a development pathway for children aged 4-10. Specifically:

- how the proposed program will reflect the modified approach prescribed in the JTI;
- how the proposed program will reflect the guidelines in Tennis Australia's "Hot Shots in Schools" modified approach;

- how many schools and how many children will be involved in the program; and
- how the Member Nation will incorporate the proposed school program into the Member Nation's development program including details of:
  - specific activities;
  - duration of the activity sessions;
  - number of sessions and classes ;
  - how these activity sessions in schools will be incorporated into ongoing development programs; and
  - how these programs will emphasize 7, 8 and 9 year old age groups.

The Grant will be distributed to selected Member Nations based on the quality of the Grant Application Forms received, in accordance with the Grant Distribution Timetable set out below.

GRANT CONDITIONS

Successful Member Nations must:

- use the Grant to implement proposed junior development tennis programs in a proper, thorough, competent and efficient manner including providing all necessary infrastructure, administrative and other support that may be required to deliver within school settings;
- prepare and submit a six month and final report providing updates on the implementation of proposals;
- prepare and submit half yearly accounts setting out how the Grant has been used and distributed and setting out any other costs associated with the proposals; and
- comply with the attached AO Pacific Pathway Conditions and Guidelines.

AO Pacific Pathway Conditions

1. These conditions must be read together with the Application Information (Conditions). By applying for a Grant the Member Nation agrees to be bound by these Conditions.
2. The organiser of the AO Pacific Pathway is Tennis Australia Limited (ABN 61 006 281 125) (TA), the owner and promoter of the Australian Open Tennis Championships (AO).
3. Applications will be assessed by TA and the ITF Development Officer having regard to the way that Grant Application Form addresses the Application Criteria. Each successful Member Nation will be notified in writing using the contact details provided on its Grant Application Form.
4. Not all Member Nations that meet the Application Criteria will receive a Grant. TA's decision is final.
5. The Grant will be distributed in accordance with the Grant Distribution Timetable.
6. It is a condition of accepting a Grant that successful Member Nations use the Grant in accordance with the information provided in its Grant Application Form unless otherwise agreed by TA. The Grant (or any part) is not transferable or exchangeable.
7. TA reserves the right, at its absolute discretion, at any time, to vary, withdraw, postpone, amend or cancel a Grant, including without limitation, in circumstances where it cannot award any part of the Grant for any reason beyond its control.
8. If Member Nation does not comply with these Conditions, TA may, in its sole discretion, require the Member Nation to repay and return all or part of the Grant and withhold any future payments.
9. TA may recover any, or all, of the Grant if the Member Nation has used the Grant for anything other than as stipulated in its Grant Application Form or has supplied TA with information that is false or misleading.
10. Each Member Nations that is awarded a Grant must prepare and submit a report to TA and the ITF Development Executive every six (6) months during the AO Pacific Pathway (in accordance with a template provided by TA).
11. Each Member Nation warrants and represents that all information it has provided is accurate and it meets all the eligibility requirements to participate.
12. TA is not liable for any loss, damage and/or personal injury suffered or sustained in connection with, or as a result of, the AO Pacific Pathway Program or the Member Nation's use of a Grant.
13. Each Member Nation agrees to indemnify (and keep indemnified) TA (and any of its officers, employees and agents) against any loss, liability, injury or death incurred by TA (including any loss or expense incurred by the AO in dealing with any claim against the Member Nation) arising from any acts, omissions and/or negligence of the Member Nation, or the Member Nation's employees or agents in connection with the AO Pacific Pathway.
14. Each Member Nation warrants that it has obtained consents of all participants in the AO Pacific Pathway sponsored junior development tennis programs, to the taking, retaining and reproducing images or likenesses obtained during the participants' participation in the program, in photographs, electronic images, sound recordings and video footage and to use such images or likenesses for the purposes of any TA, ITF and Oceania Tennis Federation's promotional, advertising, research or marketing materials (including for the promotion of the AO Pacific Pathway).
15. TA will collect, store, use and disclose personal information it collects in accordance with its privacy policy located at <http://www.tennis.com.au/privacy>, which also contains information about how individuals may access and seek correction of personal information or complain about a breach of privacy by TA, and how TA will deal with that complaint. TA may disclose personal information to other parties, including TA's related companies, other Australian Tennis Organisations, and third parties who provide TA services. From time to time, those third parties may be located overseas, including in the USA and the Netherlands.
16. The AO Pacific Pathway and the terms and conditions of these Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Victoria, Australia and the Member Nation irrevocably and unconditionally consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts of Victoria, Australia.
